

1. What is the number of years that the data was collected? _____
2. What is the highest number of inches of precipitation in any year during the time the data was collected?
3. What is the lowest number of inches of precipitation in any year during the period of the data?
4. What is the range of precipitation over the time the data was collected
5. If the red line represents the average rainfall over the period the data was collected. Write a sentence below that tells what has happened to the amount of rainfall the regions has received over the time the data was collected?
